Rudolfo Pinot Gris Willamette Valley

All of the grapes in the Lumos wines are from USDA and Oregon certified organic vineyards. Dai Crisp has been farming vineyards this way for more than 30 years. This philosophy of a natural approach with minimal intervention also drives the winemaking.

Vineyard

Logsdon Ridge Vineyard has been managed by Dai since 2002. Owned by the Rudolph family and known to our team as Rudolfo, this small 10-acre vineyard is planted entirely to Pinot Gris. Located just north of Corvallis, Oregon, it is a warm, low elevation site that ripens very early. The vineyard supplies six clients, all making beautiful Pinot Gris.

Moderately dark garnet color in the glass. Aromas of blackberry, herbs and seasoned oak echo on the nose. Very charming, with a nicely spiced mid weight blackberry fruit core. What sets this wine apart is the remarkably persistent finish. Like Tom Brady, it's all about the finish.
